

NOVOTES AFTER 4 P. M.

Judge Barrett Decides the Question To-Day.

An Effort to Allow All in Line at the Hour to Cast Their Vote.

Col. Bliss, on Behalf of the Republicans, Opposed All Relief.

Justice Barrett has decided the motion of the Tammany Committee asking for a writ of mandamus compelling the inspectors of election in the Thirty-second Precinct to receive the votes of all electors who may be present at the polling place, ready to vote at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, even though to receive their ballots might necessitate keeping the polls open later than that hour.

In this precinct 1,017 voters are registered, and it is believed that here and in several other precincts the voters will be in the streets at 4 o'clock to receive their ballots. The Tammany Committee, however, has asked for a writ of mandamus to compel the inspectors to receive the votes of all electors who may be present at the polling place, ready to vote at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, even though to receive their ballots might necessitate keeping the polls open later than that hour.

With a view of obtaining some remedy for this state of affairs, Tammany Hall appointed a committee to look after the matter.

Frank H. Lawrence, Nelson Smith, Joseph J. Martin, Judge Alfred Steele, John C. H. Myers, Alexander Tamm, L. C. H. Myers, and Joseph H. Mitchell, composing the committee, and Peter G. Mitchell as counsel applied for a writ of mandamus to compel the inspectors to receive the votes of all electors who may be present at the polling place, ready to vote at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, even though to receive their ballots might necessitate keeping the polls open later than that hour.

Justice Barrett has decided the motion of the Tammany Committee asking for a writ of mandamus compelling the inspectors of election in the Thirty-second Precinct to receive the votes of all electors who may be present at the polling place, ready to vote at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, even though to receive their ballots might necessitate keeping the polls open later than that hour.

In this precinct 1,017 voters are registered, and it is believed that here and in several other precincts the voters will be in the streets at 4 o'clock to receive their ballots. The Tammany Committee, however, has asked for a writ of mandamus to compel the inspectors to receive the votes of all electors who may be present at the polling place, ready to vote at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, even though to receive their ballots might necessitate keeping the polls open later than that hour.

Justice Barrett has decided the motion of the Tammany Committee asking for a writ of mandamus compelling the inspectors of election in the Thirty-second Precinct to receive the votes of all electors who may be present at the polling place, ready to vote at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, even though to receive their ballots might necessitate keeping the polls open later than that hour.

In this precinct 1,017 voters are registered, and it is believed that here and in several other precincts the voters will be in the streets at 4 o'clock to receive their ballots. The Tammany Committee, however, has asked for a writ of mandamus to compel the inspectors to receive the votes of all electors who may be present at the polling place, ready to vote at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, even though to receive their ballots might necessitate keeping the polls open later than that hour.

Justice Barrett has decided the motion of the Tammany Committee asking for a writ of mandamus compelling the inspectors of election in the Thirty-second Precinct to receive the votes of all electors who may be present at the polling place, ready to vote at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, even though to receive their ballots might necessitate keeping the polls open later than that hour.

In this precinct 1,017 voters are registered, and it is believed that here and in several other precincts the voters will be in the streets at 4 o'clock to receive their ballots. The Tammany Committee, however, has asked for a writ of mandamus to compel the inspectors to receive the votes of all electors who may be present at the polling place, ready to vote at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, even though to receive their ballots might necessitate keeping the polls open later than that hour.

Justice Barrett has decided the motion of the Tammany Committee asking for a writ of mandamus compelling the inspectors of election in the Thirty-second Precinct to receive the votes of all electors who may be present at the polling place, ready to vote at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, even though to receive their ballots might necessitate keeping the polls open later than that hour.

In this precinct 1,017 voters are registered, and it is believed that here and in several other precincts the voters will be in the streets at 4 o'clock to receive their ballots. The Tammany Committee, however, has asked for a writ of mandamus to compel the inspectors to receive the votes of all electors who may be present at the polling place, ready to vote at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, even though to receive their ballots might necessitate keeping the polls open later than that hour.

Justice Barrett has decided the motion of the Tammany Committee asking for a writ of mandamus compelling the inspectors of election in the Thirty-second Precinct to receive the votes of all electors who may be present at the polling place, ready to vote at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, even though to receive their ballots might necessitate keeping the polls open later than that hour.

In this precinct 1,017 voters are registered, and it is believed that here and in several other precincts the voters will be in the streets at 4 o'clock to receive their ballots. The Tammany Committee, however, has asked for a writ of mandamus to compel the inspectors to receive the votes of all electors who may be present at the polling place, ready to vote at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, even though to receive their ballots might necessitate keeping the polls open later than that hour.

OBJECTED TO HIS DRESS.

WY "LEWIS THE LIGHT" WAS EXPELLED FROM THE TABERNACLE.

A Warrant Issued for His Arrest This Morning.

Charged with Instigating the Gravesend Frauds.

His White Flannel Costume Excited a Commotion Among the Worshipers—A Suit for Damages Brought Against Two of the Church Trustees—Lewis Was Hurt in Body and in Feelings.

A suit for damages has been brought in Brooklyn to test the question as to whether a man can be ejected from a church on account of the costume he wears, if he conducts himself in a quiet and orderly manner.

The complainant is Lewis D. Greenleaf, otherwise known as "Lewis the Light," and the defendants are several of the trustees of the Brooklyn Tabernacle, which is presided over by the Rev. T. W. Halmage.

Through his counsel, Messrs. Daly & Bell, Greenleaf says that on Sept. 30 he attended the Tabernacle, "for the purpose of receiving religious instruction and listening to the sermon and observing the ceremonies."

He was shown to a seat, which he occupied and where he conducted himself in a quiet and orderly manner. Then he alleges that in the midst of the services, without any provocation, at the instigation of the trustees, he was ejected from the church and his property was taken from him.

He claims that he was wounded not only in his person, but in his feelings, as the indignities he was subjected to in the presence of the congregation, and that he suffered damages to the amount of $1,000.

The action is brought against Trustees Wood and one other. They are defended by United States Marshal Charles M. Stafford.

Mr. Stafford could not be seen this morning, but it was learned that the Trustees claim that Greenleaf entered the church wearing a long black cloak which completely covered his clothing.

After he was ejected, they say he removed the cloak, exposing a very gaudy white flannel costume, and was ejected again for this reason. He claims that he was ejected for this reason, and that he was ejected for this reason, and that he was ejected for this reason.

He claims that he was ejected for this reason, and that he was ejected for this reason, and that he was ejected for this reason.

He claims that he was ejected for this reason, and that he was ejected for this reason, and that he was ejected for this reason.

He claims that he was ejected for this reason, and that he was ejected for this reason, and that he was ejected for this reason.

He claims that he was ejected for this reason, and that he was ejected for this reason, and that he was ejected for this reason.

He claims that he was ejected for this reason, and that he was ejected for this reason, and that he was ejected for this reason.

He claims that he was ejected for this reason, and that he was ejected for this reason, and that he was ejected for this reason.

He claims that he was ejected for this reason, and that he was ejected for this reason, and that he was ejected for this reason.

CONC FOR M'KANE

THAT OMINOUS LETTER.

Fac Simile of the Famous Corruption Circular Alleged to Have Come from Col. Dudley.

United States District-Attorney Walker Willing to Indict Dudley if Affidavits Are Furnished.

Col. Fellows Says if the Letter Is Genuine He May Set the Local Machinery at Work Against Dudley.

HEADQUARTERS
Republican National Committee,
91 FIFTH AVENUE,
New York.

Nov. 2, 1888.

Dear Sir:

I hope you have kept copies of the lists sent me. Such information is very valuable and should be used to great advantage. It has enabled me to demonstrate to friends that with proper assistance Indiana is surely Republican for Governor and President, and has resulted in my holding our floaters and doubtful voters, and gain enough of any other kind to give Harrison and Morton 10,000 plurality. New York is now safe beyond peradventure for the Republican Presidential ticket; Connecticut likewise. In short every Northern State, except perhaps New Jersey, though we still hope to carry that State. Harrison's majority in the Electoral College will not be less than 100. Make our friends in each precinct wake up to the fact that only boodle and fraudulent votes and false counting of returns can beat us in the State. Write each of our precinct correspondents, let them find out who has Democratic boodle, and steer the Democratic workers to them; and make them pay big prices for their ownmen. Send the election officers closely, and make sure to have no man on the Board whose integrity is even questionable, and insist on Republicans watching every movement of the election officers. Send, see that our workers know every voter entitled to a vote, and let no one else even offer to vote. 4th, Divide the floaters into blocks of five, and put a trusted man with necessary funds in charge of these five, and make him responsible that none get away, and that all vote our ticket. 5th, Make a personal appeal to your best business men to pledge themselves to devote the entire day, Nov. 6th, to work at the polls, i. e. to be present at the polls with tickets. They will be astonished to see how utterly dumfounded the ordinary Democratic election bumper will be and how quickly he will disappear. The result will fully justify the sacrifice of time and comfort, and will be a source of satisfaction afterwards to those who help in this way. Lay great stress on this last matter. It will pay.

There will be no doubt of your receiving the necessary assistance through the National, State and County Committees—only see that the husband and wife to produce results. I rely on you to advise your precinct correspondents, and urge them to unremitting and constant efforts from now till the polls close, and the result is announced officially. We will fight for a fair election here if necessary. The Rebel crew can't steal this election from us as they did in 1864, without someone getting hurt. Let every Republican do his whole duty, and the country will base itself on Republican hands, never to leave it. I trust. Thanking you again for your efforts to assist me in my work, I remain Yours Sincerely,

Wm. W. Dudley

Please wire me result in principal precincts and county.

First published should have remembered that he was misquoted in one particular and material phrase. He said that in the letter which he wrote and which he left to be inferred was an infamous story of note he did not speak of "naturalized Democrats" but of "Democratic election bumpers."

Now, that the fac-simile of the letter has been received, it appears that Col. Dudley's remembrance of the use of those words is very good, for they are found in the body of the letter.

If his memory is as good regarding instructions to "divide the floaters into blocks of five," and to put them in charge of "a trusted man with necessary funds," he has failed to say so, and has, since his first attempt at explanation, maintained a studied, discreet and quiet-mannered silence.

Col. Dudley was at the Republican National Headquarters, but was too busy to receive this Evening World representative.

He was accompanied by Senator Quay, and about 10 o'clock accompanied by Committee-men Clark, and he went down to Wall street on a financial mission, whether to secure the "loan" which is to put the election methods of Indiana or not could not be ascertained.

In order to give Mr. W. W. Dudley an opportunity to have a fac-simile of his signature shown side by side with the signature under the "booster" letter, an Evening World reporter called on him at the National Republican Headquarters this morning.

The reporter explained to the gentleman who had him to obtain Mr. Dudley's signature. His card was sent to Mr. Dudley with his request, and his explanation the answer came back from Mr. Dudley:

"Will you please go and see George Bliss. I am too busy."

BADGE'S VICTORY.

Winning the Potomac Stakes Under a Strong Pull.

Bronzomarte Surprises the Ivy City Talent.

Winning the Potomac Stakes Under a Strong Pull.

Bronzomarte Surprises the Ivy City Talent.

Winning the Potomac Stakes Under a Strong Pull.

Bronzomarte Surprises the Ivy City Talent.

Winning the Potomac Stakes Under a Strong Pull.

Bronzomarte Surprises the Ivy City Talent.

Winning the Potomac Stakes Under a Strong Pull.

Bronzomarte Surprises the Ivy City Talent.

Winning the Potomac Stakes Under a Strong Pull.

Bronzomarte Surprises the Ivy City Talent.

Winning the Potomac Stakes Under a Strong Pull.

Bronzomarte Surprises the Ivy City Talent.

Winning the Potomac Stakes Under a Strong Pull.

Bronzomarte Surprises the Ivy City Talent.